23 depicted individual who is identifiable and who suffers harm from a 24 person's intentional disclosure or threatened disclosure of an

5 2. The intimate image was private; and

6 3. The depicted individual was identifiable.

11 that the individual lacked a reasonable expectation of privacy.

12 D. A depicted individual who does not consent to the sexual 13 conduct or uncovering of the part of the body depicted in an

14 child is not liable under this act for a disclosure or threatened 15 disclosure of an intimate image of the child.

16 D. If a defendant asserts an exception to liability under

21 gratification, humiliation, degradation, or monetary or commercial 22 gain.

5 this act for all disclosures and threatened
6 disclosures by the defendant of which the plaintiff
7 knew or reasonably should have known when filing the 8 action or which became known during the pendency of 9 the action. In determining the amount of statutory
