3 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 6 O.S. 2021, Section 2205, is 4 amended to read as follows:

5 Section 2205. A. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act shall 6 prohibit the disclosure or release of any financial record or 7 information to any supervisory agency in the exercise of its 8 supervisory or regulatory functions with respect to a financial 9 institution.

10 B. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act prohibits a financial 11 institution from disclosing or releasing any financial record or 12 information to another financial institution for the usual and 13 regular business purposes of the latter or from providing copies of 14 any financial record to any court or government authority as an 15 incident to perfecting a security interest, proving a claim in 16 bankruptcy, or otherwise collecting on a debt either owed the 17 financial institution itself or owed the financial institution in 18 its role as a fiduciary.

19 C. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act prohibits a financial 20 institution from notifying a government authority that such 21 institution or an officer, employee, or agent of such institution 22 has information that may be relevant to a possible violation of any 23 statute or regulation.
24

1 D. Sections 2201 through 2204 of this title shall not apply to 2 any court order or subpoena issued in connection with proceedings
3 before a multicounty grand jury, except that a court shall have 4 authority to order a financial institution, on which a multicounty
5 grand jury subpoena for customer records has been served, not to 6 notify the customer of the existence of the subpoena or information
7 that has been furnished to the multicounty grand jury. The court
8 may order that the customer not be notified only if it finds:

9 1. That the requested records are relevant to an ongoing
10 criminal investigation being conducted by the multicounty grand 11 jury; and

12 2. That disclosure of the existence or issuance of, or 13 compliance with the subpoena may frustrate or impede the 14 investigation.

15 E. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act shall prohibit the 16 disclosure or release of any financial record or information as 17 required by Section 2 of this act.

18 SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified

17 B. If an employee of an institution reasonably believes that 18 financial exploitation of a protected adult in this state has 19 occurred, is occurring, has been attempted, is being attempted, or 20 will be attempted, the employee shall notify the institution of the 21 suspected financial exploitation. If the institution reasonably 22 believes that financial exploitation has occurred or is occurring,
23 the institution shall promptly notify one or more of the proper
24

1 agencies pursuant to the provisions of the Protective Services for 2 Vulnerable Adults Act.

3 C. If an institution believes that financial exploitation of a 4 protected adult has occurred, is occurring, has been attempted, is 5 being attempted, or will be attempted, in or from this state, the 6 institution may notify the trusted contact, or in the absence of 7 such designation, any other third party that the institution
8 reasonably believes is associated with the protected adult.

17 attempted, and

18 b. the institution:

9 authorized by this subsection shall expire upon the earlier of:

- 10 a. a determination by the institution that the 11 transaction or disbursement of funds shall not result 12 in financial exploitation of the protected adult, or 13 b. not later than ten (10) business days after the date
14 on which the institution first placed the temporary 15 hold on the transaction or disbursement of funds,
16 unless the institution's internal review of the facts
17 and circumstances supports the institution's 18 reasonable belief that financial exploitation of the 19 protected adult has occurred, is occurring, has been 20 attempted, or will be attempted, or the institution 21 receives a request for an extension by one or more of 22 the agencies, in which case the institution may extend 23 the temporary hold to not later than twenty (20)
24 business days after the date the institution first

1 placed the temporary hold on the transaction or 2 disbursement of the funds.

3 3. Nothing in this subsection shall require an institution to 4 place a temporary hold on any transaction with or disbursement of 5 funds from an account of a protected adult or an account on which 6 such protected adult is a beneficiary.

7 E. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections C and D of 8 this section, a notification permitted or required by this section 9 shall not be made to any person the institution reasonably believes 10 has engaged, is engaging, or will engage in suspected or attempted 11 financial exploitation of the protected adult.

13 makes a notification or report under subsection B of this section,
14 makes a notification or report to a third party under subsection C 15 of this section, provides records to any agency pursuant to 16 subsection G of this section, or testifies or otherwise participates 17 in a judicial proceeding arising from such notification, report, or 18 provision of records, shall be immune from any civil or criminal 19 liability arising from the notification, report, provision of 20 records, testimony, or participation in the judicial proceeding,
21 unless the employee or institution acted in bad faith or with a
22 malicious purpose.

23 2. An institution that places, releases, or does not place a
24 hold on any transaction pursuant to subsection D of this section

1 shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability, as well as any 2 disciplinary action from the Banking Department, from that action or 3 failure to act, unless the institution acted in bad faith or with a
4 malicious purpose.

5 G. An institution shall retain and, to the extent permitted by 6 state and federal law, may provide access to or copies of records 7 that are relevant to the suspected or attempted financial 8 exploitation of a protected adult to any agency upon the written 9 certification of the agency that an investigation into the financial 10 exploitation of a protected adult is being undertaken by the agency.
11 Upon such certification, the agency may request an institution to 12 furnish, and an institution may, but shall not be required to,

1 4. The dates and amounts of deposits and debits and the account
2 balance;

3 5. A copy of the signature card, including the signature and 4 any addresses appearing on a customer's signature card;

5 6. New bank cards issued;

6 7. Change of address requests received;

7 8. Power of attorney or trust documents submitted or executed;

8 9. The date the account opened and, if applicable, the date the 9 account closed; and

10 10. Surveillance photographs and video recordings of persons
11 accessing the victim's financial account via an automated teller
12 machine (ATM) or from within the institution for dates on which 13 illegal acts involving the account were alleged to have occurred.
14 This paragraph shall not be construed to:

15 a. require an institution to produce a photograph or 16 video recording if the institution does not possess
17 the photograph or video recording, or

18 b. affect any existing civil immunities under state law.

19 A bank, credit union, or savings association that provides the 20 requesting party with copies of one or more complete account
21 statements prepared in the regular course of business shall be
