21 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

22 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 6 O.S. 2021, Section 2205, is 23 amended to read as follows:
24

1 Section 2205. A. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act shall 2 prohibit the disclosure or release of any financial record or 3 information to any supervisory agency in the exercise of its 4 supervisory or regulatory functions with respect to a financial 5 institution.

6 B. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act prohibits a financial 7 institution from disclosing or releasing any financial record or 8 information to another financial institution for the usual and 9 regular business purposes of the latter or from providing copies of 10 any financial record to any court or government authority as an 11 incident to perfecting a security interest, proving a claim in 12 bankruptcy, or otherwise collecting on a debt either owed the 13 financial institution itself or owed the financial institution in 14 its role as a fiduciary.

15 C. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act prohibits a financial 16 institution from notifying a government authority that such 17 institution or an officer, employee, or agent of such institution 18 has information that may be relevant to a possible violation of any 19 statute or regulation.

20 D. Sections 2201 through 2204 of this title shall not apply to 21 any court order or subpoena issued in connection with proceedings 22 before a multicounty grand jury, except that a court shall have 23 authority to order a financial institution, on which a multicounty 24 grand jury subpoena for customer records has been served, not to

1 notify the customer of the existence of the subpoena or information
2 that has been furnished to the multicounty grand jury. The court 3 may order that the customer not be notified only if it finds:

4 1. That the requested records are relevant to an ongoing 5 criminal investigation being conducted by the multicounty grand 6 jury; and

7 2. That disclosure of the existence or issuance of, or 8 compliance with the subpoena may frustrate or impede the 9 investigation.

10 E. Nothing in the Financial Privacy Act shall prohibit the 11 disclosure or release of any financial record or information as 12 required by Section 2 of this act.

13 SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified 14 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3401 of Title 6, unless there is 15 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

16 A. As used in this section:

17 1. "Account" means any account of a financial institution or 18 trust business for which a protected adult has the authority to 19 transact business;

20 2. "Agency" means one or more of the following:

21 a. the Department of Human Services,

22 b. the office of the district attorney in the county in 23 which the suspected exploitation occurred, or 24

1 c. any state or federal law enforcement agency with 2 jurisdiction over the area in which the suspected 3 exploitation occurred;

4 3. "Financial exploitation" means:

5 a. the wrongful or unauthorized taking, withholding, 6 appropriation, or use of money, assets, or property of 7 a protected adult, or

8 b. any act or omission taken by a person, including 9 through the use of a power of attorney, guardianship,
10 conservatorship, or any other authority, regarding a 11 protected adult, to:

12 (1) obtain control, through the use of intimidation,
13 undue influence, coercion, harassment, duress,
14 deception, false representation, or false
15 pretense, over the protected adult's money, 16 assets, or property, or

17 (2) convert or divert money, assets, or property of 18 the protected adult to deprive the protected 19 adult of the ownership, use, benefit, or 20 possession of the money, assets, or property;

21 4. "Financial institution" has the same meaning as defined in 22 Section 2202 of Title 6 of the Oklahoma Statutes;

23 5. "Institution" means a financial institution or trust 24 business;

1 6. "Protected adult" means:

2 a. an individual sixty-two (62) years of age or older, or

3 b. an incapacitated person or a vulnerable adult as such

4 terms are defined in the Protective Services for

5 Vulnerable Adults Act;

6 7. "Trust business" means the same as defined in Section 1702
7 of Title 6 of the Oklahoma Statutes; and

8 8. "Trusted contact" means any adult person designated by a 9 customer of an institution that the institution may contact in the 10 event of an emergency or loss of contact with the customer, or in 11 the event of suspected third-party fraud or financial exploitation 12 targeting the customer.

13 B. If an employee of an institution reasonably believes that 14 financial exploitation of a protected adult in this state has 15 occurred, is occurring, has been attempted, is being attempted, or 16 will be attempted, the employee shall notify the institution of the 17 suspected financial exploitation. If the institution reasonably 18 believes that financial exploitation has occurred or is occurring, 19 the institution shall promptly notify one or more of the proper 20 agencies pursuant to the provisions of the Protective Services for 21 Vulnerable Adults Act.

22 C. If an institution believes that financial exploitation of a 23 protected adult has occurred, is occurring, has been attempted, is 24 being attempted, or will be attempted, in or from this state, the 1 institution may notify the trusted contact, or in the absence of 2 such designation, any other third party that the institution 3 reasonably believes is associated with the protected adult.

4 D. 1. An institution transacting business in or from this 5 state with a protected adult may place a temporary hold on a 6 transaction with or a disbursement of funds from an account of such 7 protected adult or an account on which such protected adult is a 8 beneficiary if:

9 a. the institution believes that financial exploitation 10 of a protected adult has occurred, is occurring, has 11 been attempted, is being attempted, or will be 12 attempted, and

13 b. the institution:

14 (1) immediately, but in no event more than three (3)
15 business days after the date the temporary hold 16 is first placed, provides oral or written 17 notification, which may be electronic, of the 18 temporary hold and the reason to all parties 19 authorized to transact business with the account 20 and to any trusted contact, and 21 (2) immediately initiates an internal review of the 22 suspected or attempted financial exploitation of 23 the protected adult, as necessary.

24

1 2. An agency or a court of competent jurisdiction may terminate
2 or extend a temporary hold authorized by this subsection. Any 3 temporary hold of a transaction or disbursement of funds as 4 authorized by this subsection shall expire upon the earlier of:

- 5 a. a determination by the institution that the 6 transaction or disbursement of funds shall not result 7 in financial exploitation of the protected adult, or
- 8 b. not later than ten (10) business days after the date 9 on which the institution first placed the temporary 10 hold on the transaction or disbursement of funds, 11 unless the institution's internal review of the facts
12 and circumstances supports the institution's 13 reasonable belief that financial exploitation of the 14 protected adult has occurred, is occurring, has been 15 attempted, or will be attempted, or the institution 16 receives a request for an extension by one or more of 17 the agencies, in which case the institution may extend 18 the temporary hold to not later than twenty (20) 19 business days after the date the institution first 20 placed the temporary hold on the transaction or 21 disbursement of the funds.

22 3. Nothing in this subsection shall require an institution to 23 place a temporary hold on any transaction with or disbursement of 24

1 funds from an account of a protected adult or an account on which 2 such protected adult is a beneficiary.

3 E. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections C and D of 4 this section, a notification permitted or required by this section 5 shall not be made to any person the institution reasonably believes 6 has engaged, is engaging, or will engage in suspected or attempted 7 financial exploitation of the protected adult.

8 F. 1. An institution, or any employee of an institution, who 9 makes a notification or report under subsection B of this section, 10 makes a notification or report to a third party under subsection C 11 of this section, provides records to any agency pursuant to 12 subsection G of this section, or testifies or otherwise participates 13 in a judicial proceeding arising from such notification, report, or 14 provision of records, shall be immune from any civil or criminal 15 liability arising from the notification, report, provision of 16 records, testimony, or participation in the judicial proceeding, 17 unless the employee or institution acted in bad faith or with a
18 malicious purpose.

19 2. An institution that places, releases, or does not place a 20 hold on any transaction pursuant to subsection D of this section 21 shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability, as well as any 22 disciplinary action from the Banking Department, from that action or 23 failure to act, unless the institution acted in bad faith or with a 24 malicious purpose.

1 G. An institution shall retain and, to the extent permitted by 2 state and federal law, may provide access to or copies of records 3 that are relevant to the suspected or attempted financial 4 exploitation of a protected adult to any agency upon the written 5 certification of the agency that an investigation into the financial 6 exploitation of a protected adult is being undertaken by the agency.
7 Upon such certification, the agency may request an institution to 8 furnish, and an institution may, but shall not be required to, 9 furnish, a statement setting forth the following information with 10 respect to a customer account specified by the requesting party for 11 a period of ninety (90) days before and up to sixty (60) days
12 following the date of occurrence of the alleged illegal act 13 involving the account:

14 1. The number of items dishonored;

15 2. The number of items paid that created overdrafts;

16 3. The dollar volume of the dishonored items and items paid
17 which created overdrafts and a statement explaining any credit 18 arrangement between the bank, credit union, or savings association 19 and customer to pay overdrafts;

20 4. The dates and amounts of deposits and debits and the account 21 balance;

22 5. A copy of the signature card, including the signature and 23 any addresses appearing on a customer's signature card;

24 6. New bank cards issued;

1 7. Change of address requests received;

2 8. Power of attorney or trust documents submitted or executed;

3 9. The date the account opened and, if applicable, the date the 4 account closed; and

5 10. Surveillance photographs and video recordings of persons 6 accessing the victim's financial account via an automated teller 7 machine (ATM) or from within the institution for dates on which 8 illegal acts involving the account were alleged to have occurred.

9 This paragraph shall not be construed to:

10 a. require an institution to produce a photograph or 11 video recording if the institution does not possess 12 the photograph or video recording, or

13 b. affect any existing civil immunities under state law.

14 A bank, credit union, or savings association that provides the 15 requesting party with copies of one or more complete account 16 statements prepared in the regular course of business shall be 17 deemed to be in compliance with paragraphs 1 through 4 of this 18 subsection.

19 H. Any request for information from an agency, not including 20 the provisions of this section, shall comply with the Financial 21 Privacy Act. Nothing in subsection G of this section shall be 22 construed to prohibit an institution from requiring the agencies to 23 comply with the Financial Privacy Act.

24 SECTION 3. This act shall become effective November 1, 2026.
